TERMS AND CONDITIONS
U.S. – GOODS AND SERVICES

Acceptance. The commencement of work on, or shipment of, the goods, or the commencement of services subject to this purchase order by the party being issued the purchase order ("Seller") shall be deemed an acceptance of this purchase order. Any acceptance of this purchase order is limited to acceptance of the express terms in the purchase order. Any proposal for additional or different terms or any attempt by Seller to vary any of the terms of this purchase order is hereby rejected. Such proposal shall not operate as a rejection of this purchase order unless it varies the description, quantity, price or delivery schedule of the goods or services. If this purchase order is deemed an acceptance of a prior offer by Seller, it shall be limited to the express terms in this purchase order.

Termination. Louisiana-Pacific Corporation (or one of its subsidiaries) ("Buyer") reserves the right to terminate this purchase order, or any portion of the goods or services purchased, at its sole convenience. Following such termination Seller shall immediately stop all work and shall immediately cause any of its suppliers or subcontractors to cease work. Seller shall be paid for any actual direct costs resulting from work done prior to termination. Buyer shall not pay for any work done after receipt of the notice of termination, nor for any costs incurred by Seller's suppliers or subcontractors which Seller could reasonably have avoided. Buyer may also terminate this purchase order or any portion of the goods or services purchased if Seller defaults under, or fails to comply with, any of the purchase order terms and conditions. Without limitation, Seller's insolvency, filing of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy petition, the appointment of a receiver or trustee, late deliveries, deliveries of products or services which are defective or nonconforming, or failure to provide reasonable assurances of future performance shall allow Buyer to terminate this purchase order for cause. If termination occurs as a result of Seller's default, Buyer shall not be liable to Seller for any amount, and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any and all damages sustained from the default which gave rise to the termination. In the event Buyer terminates for no cause, under no circumstances shall the total cancellation charge exceed the total price of this purchase order. Buyer shall be entitled to such work and materials as have been completed at the time of such cancellation.

Proprietary Information/Confidentiality/Advertising. Seller agrees to maintain in confidence all proprietary information revealed to Seller by Buyer in any form, including, but not limited to, any and all proprietary information directly or indirectly disclosed to Seller by Buyer, its agents, employees, consultants or contractors, whenever received by Seller. It is understood that "proprietary information" shall not include the following: (a) Information which is in the public domain through no fault of Seller; (b) Information which is received, without binder of secrecy, from third parties having no obligation of confidentiality to Buyer; and (c) Information which was already in the possession of Seller, without binder of secrecy, prior to disclosure thereof by Buyer. Proprietary information disclosed under this purchase order shall not be deemed to be within the foregoing exceptions merely because portions of such information or more general information are in the public domain or in the possession of Seller. The sole purpose of any disclosure is to enable Seller to understand and evaluate Buyer and its products as well as its business systems, processes, procedures and plans; and to provide goods and/or services to Buyer which best fit Buyer's needs. This purchase order shall not be construed to grant to Seller any license or rights except those specifically granted hereunder. Seller shall not make any copies of the proprietary information without prior written consent of Buyer. Furthermore, Seller agrees not to make any commercial use of any proprietary information received hereunder. Upon request, Seller shall promptly return all documents and things disclosed under this purchase order, and copies thereof, to Buyer. Further, any developments or improvements to Buyer's business systems, processes, procedures, plans, products, formulations or technologies contributed to or invented by Seller shall be deemed to be work for hire and, thus, property of Buyer, and Seller shall provide or cause to be provided appropriate assignments as necessary to ensure such ownership by Buyer. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, no commercial, financial or technical information disclosed in any manner or at any time by Seller to Buyer shall be deemed secret. Seller shall not advertise or publish the fact that Buyer has contracted to purchase goods from Seller.

Patents. Seller warrants that the goods furnished under this purchase order do not infringe any patent rights. Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its affiliates and their customers from losses, expenses (including attorney's fees), claims or liability of any nature arising out of the infringement or alleged infringement of any patent on account of the manufacture, sale or use of any goods furnished hereunder except where compliance by Seller with specifications prescribed by and originating with Buyer constitutes the sole basis of infringement or alleged infringement. Seller, at its expense, agrees to defend any suit brought or claim asserted against Buyer, its affiliates and their customers on account of any such infringement or alleged infringement upon being notified in writing thereof by Buyer. If the use of such goods is enjoined, Seller shall at its expense make every reasonable effort to obtain for Buyer, its affiliates and their customers, a license to continue to use such goods. If after a reasonable time Seller is unable or fails to obtain such license, Seller shall, at its expense, either replace such goods with equivalent non-infringing goods or modify such goods in a manner acceptable to Buyer so that they become equivalent, non-infringing goods. If after exercise of its best efforts, Seller is unable to license, replace, or modify as set forth above, Seller shall refund to Buyer all money and other consideration paid pursuant to this purchase order.

Warranty. Seller expressly warrants that all goods or services furnished under this purchase order shall: (a) conform to all specifications and applicable standards (including, without limitation, government and trade standards); (b) be new (unless otherwise expressly stated in writing); (c) be free from latent or patent defects in material or workmanship; (d) conform to any representations, warranties, or statements made for such goods or services; (e) be adequately and correctly contained, packaged, marked and labeled; (f) be merchantable, safe and appropriate for the purpose for which goods or services of that kind are normally used; (g) be fit for a particular purpose if Seller knows or has reason to know the particular purpose for which the goods and services will be used; (h) conform in all respects to any samples used by Seller; and (i) not violate any patents, copyrights or other intellectual properties. Seller further warrants that it has good and marketable title to the goods and Buyer will own the goods free of any claims of any third Party. Inspections, tests, acceptance or use will not affect Seller's obligations under these warranties. All warranties shall survive inspections, tests, acceptance and use. Seller's warranties shall run to Buyer, its successors, assigns, customers and users of products or services sold by Buyer. Seller agrees to replace or correct defects in any goods or services not conforming to warranty promptly, without expense to Buyer, when notified of such nonconformity by Buyer. If Seller fails to correct defects in or replace nonconforming goods or services promptly, Buyer, after reasonable notice to Seller, may make such corrections or replace such goods and services and charge Seller all costs.

Price Warranty. Seller warrants that the prices for the items or services sold to Buyer are not greater than those currently charged to any other customer for the same or similar items or services in similar quantities. If Seller reduces its price to any other customer for any article during the term of this purchase order, Seller shall correspondingly reduce its price to Buyer or offer a rebate to Buyer for the discounted sum. Seller warrants that prices shown on this purchase order are all inclusive. No additional charges of any kind shall be added without Buyer's written consent.

Force Majeure. Neither party shall be required to perform during any period where performance is prevented by an event of Force Majeure which is defined to be any event beyond the reasonable control of the parties including, but not limited to, acts of God, severe weather (hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, etc.) delays in transportation, shortages of materials, plant shutdown due to lack of supplies, equipment failure, regulatory action or other reason causing the curtailment of all business, strikes, lock-outs, work stoppages or other labor disturbance, governmental action, acts of war or civil unrest, embargoes or any other event beyond the parties control whether similar or dissimilar to the above. Performance shall be excused for the period during which the event of Force Majeure delays performance. The party experiencing the delay shall give written notice to the other party of the event within five (5) working days of its onset. If performance is delayed for one (1) or more periods in excess of ninety (90) days, either party may terminate this purchase order.

Indemnification. Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer against all third party claims for damages, claims, liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees in the trial court, on appeal, and in any bankruptcy proceeding) arising out of or resulting in any way from any defect in the goods or services purchased, or from any act or omission of Seller, its agents, employees or subcontractors. This indemnification shall be in addition to the warranty obligations of Seller.

Trade Embargo Indemnification. Seller shall indemnify and save harmless Buyer, its employees, agents, subsidiaries and assigns from and against any and all losses, liabilities, costs, expenses, libels, suits, actions, claims, judgments, fines, penalties and other obligations and proceedings whatsoever including attorney's fees Buyer incurs, which may directly or indirectly result from actual or alleged, direct or indirect transactions, or the facilitation of such transactions, with nations, specially designated nationals, or foreign business entities listed with the United States Treasury Department or the United States Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Changes. Buyer shall have the right at any time to change drawings, designs, specifications, materials, packaging, time and place of delivery and method of transportation for the goods or services provided. If any changes cause an increase or decrease in the cost or the time required for performance, an equitable adjustment shall be made and a written revision to this purchase order completed.

Inspection/Testing. Payment for goods delivered or services provided shall not constitute acceptance. Buyer shall have the right to inspect such goods or services and to reject any or all of the goods or services that are, in Buyer's judgment, defective or nonconforming. Goods rejected and goods supplied in excess of specified quantities may be returned at Seller's expense and, in addition to Buyer's other rights, Buyer may charge Seller all expenses of unpacking, examining, repackaging and reshipping such goods. If Buyer rejects any services provided, Buyer, at its sole option, may require Seller to correctly perform the services or hire another person to perform the services at Seller's expense. If Buyer receives defective or nonconforming goods that are not apparent upon examination, Buyer may, in addition to requiring replacement of the goods, require payment of damages. Waiver and Remedies. Buyer's failure to insist on performance of any terms or conditions or to exercise any right or privilege, or Buyer's waiver of any breach, shall not be a subsequent waiver of any other terms, conditions or privileges. All of Buyer's rights and remedies under this purchase order shall be construed as cumulative and shall include all rights and remedies available under law and equity.
